A Message from Pastor Julie Bailey

A YEAR OF THANKSGIVING AND REFORMATION

It is November 2016. It is hard to believe that I am in my 4th year of ministry with the people of Ascension. I have so much to be thankful for, as we all do. I give thanks to those people who have taken leadership positions and made this ministry possible. This includes the elected leaders, staff, and those who have stepped up when needed.

Nearly 500 years ago, a monk in the Roman Catholic Church challenged the Church to change some practices. Based in scripture, he challenged the church and was eventually excommunicated for his refusal to continue the status quo. His primary issue—the sale of indulgences, ways in which people could purchase pieces of paper that would potentially decrease the time they stayed in purgatory, the holding place, before going to heaven. Sound strange? It is because this practice no longer exists. Luther refused to recant his writings—including the understanding of justification by grace through faith, apart from any works of the law. Meaning there is nothing we can do to make ourselves right with God, and in God's love Jesus came to do that for us.

At Ascension, and throughout the Church, I believe we are in need of another reformation. One of the obstacles of the Church 500 years ago was that people did not understand the Bible, because they couldn't read it themselves. As a church, we realize this is true. One of my most joyous and exciting times in church this month is in Bible study where we are challenged not only by the scripture, but by each other as we seek to understand. I have grown by working with this group and look forward to it each week. We are literally reading the Bible together—and then discussing it. Right now we are reading Romans, a book very important to Luther as he sought to understand God's word.

At Ascension, we are seeking to embark on a new leadership structure, with the intent purpose of furthering the vision and mission of the congregation. Ascension has a leadership structure that requires an election of about 20 people every two years. Some people have filled slots not because they had a passion for this ministry, but because they were a warm body to fill a slot. Others might like to serve but can't because of family situations and other time commitments.

The proposed structure is intended to help us be more nimble in our ministry, to respond as need arises. We can assess what God is calling us to do and do it. Some things will continue as they are while others may not. That is scary. But as some people have already said, they will be happy not to meet for a meeting just because that is what they are supposed to do, but when they meet they will accomplish something. People can participate as their passions, gifts, and time allow. We have gotten in the habit of letting the elected leaders and paid staff be responsible for everything. One of Luther's tenants was that we are all priests, we are all called to respond in ministry. We are a priesthood of all believers, differently gifted for the good of the Church and for the sake of the world. This new structure encourages us to live that out.

We don't have all the answers. At our Council meeting in October we talked about the use of time and talent sheets (ways people can indicate what their gifts are and areas in which they would like to serve). We talked about "job descriptions" so if someone volunteers to chair or serve for a project or program, they would have in writing what is expected. At the same time, we hope that new ministries will arise from the need of the community and passion of the people. Doing things just because we have always done them that way just doesn't work—and some people have burned out trying to keep that up with little reward or results.

We have entered the 500th year anniversary of the Reformation, and maybe this is the time for a new reformation. I believe that the Lutheran Church has important value in the Christian community—and yet many of us do not know what those conversation points are. Over the course of the year, I plan to offer studies in the Lutheran catechism, tenants of our faith, continued reading of the Bible. I trust we will have lively discussion, and together be strengthened in our faith.

Reformation, change is scary. I hear it is a natural human response to be wary of change, because it brings the unknown. So I end with that prayer I often end with:

O God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HONDURAS NOISY OFFERING

Sincerest thanks to all who donated to the Noisy Offering for Honduras. Our congregation has always been so generous in support of the companion synod Health for Life ministry there. For 11 years now, programs for water filters providing clean water for families, daily meals for kindergarteners in La Canada and spiritual and health education for the health assistants have made a difference. In the last year, a children's dental project and women's health program have begun. Many of you brought gifts of coins, paper money and checks—a total $829.15 was given. Thanks so very much. Most of us cannot go to Honduras. However, God calls us to share His gifts and His love with others. "My children, our love should not be just words and talk; it must be true love, which shows itself in action." I John 3:18 Your gifts are such a blessing. Thank you!!!

Bill and Sara Gregor, Honduras Planning Team

THE SAGINAW METRO MINISTRIES (SMM) FOOD PANTRY IS IN NEED OF FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.

A fundraising committee is being formed to begin to tackle grant writing and fundraising in the future, but we are asking for your help to keep running. With eight churches supporting SMM, we hope that we can reach that goal. If each family could please consider donating $5 it would help to feed our neighbors. Your help, prayers, ideas and good thoughts are appreciated. Donations can be mailed to: P.O. Box 6472, Saginaw, MI 48608 or dropped off in the Church Office. Please contact Karen Luplow, Incoming Fundraising Chair, to assist with fundraising at karenjoyluplow@yahoo.com.

HOUSEHOLD AND PERSONAL ITEMS NEEDED FOR CHRISTMAS PACKAGES

Ascension will again participate with Swan Valley High School and collect household and personal products for Christmas packages for families in need. Items needed are shampoo, conditioner, soap, laundry soap, dish soap, dryer sheets, tissues, toilet paper, paper towels, toothpaste, toothbrushes, dental floss, cleaning supplies, lotion, shaving cream, razors, feminine products, diapers, wipes, etc. We will begin the collection on November 27th and items may be placed under the Christmas tree in the Gathering Area. All items should be delivered to the church no later than the 10:30 a.m. worship service on Sunday, December 11th. Thank you for your participation in this outreach project.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Stephen Ministry will provide another training beginning January 3rd. There is a need for those who are willing to practice their Christian caregiving skills, through listening and encouraging people who are struggling. The 50 hours of training will be completed in April with ongoing supervision meetings twice monthly to help support the care-giving process. Prayerfully consider this 1:1 ministry being Jesus' hands and feet in the world. If you would like more information, contact Pastor Tim Bender, Pastor Sue Hand, Nancy Scott, or call 792-7135.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Members in Christ,

Hopefully you have had the opportunity to attend one of the informational presentations on the proposed structure changes Council will bring forward to the Congregational Meeting in December. Overall, so far, there seems to be support for the changes; even if there are some unknowns. One of the questions that arose, was what exactly are you asking us to do?

We are asking for the Congregations' support (vote) in December. We will be bringing some necessary changes to the Congregational Constitution that will allow us to operate under the new structure, and we have a change that will save the Financial Secretary some time and save a little paper.

Constitution Changes to support Structural Changes:

*We will ask to suspend the first full sentence of C12.01 under the Congregational Council and replace it with: "The voting membership of the Congregational Council shall consist of the pastor(s), the officers of the congregation, and elected representatives of the Spiritual Health, Congregational Care, Outreach, and Finance & Resource Management Teams."

*Ask to change C12.02 to state: "The elected representative of the Spiritual Health, Congregational Care, Outreach, and the Finance & Resource Management Teams shall be elected at a legally called meeting of the congregation during the month of December. Their term of office shall be for two years, with the term of office beginning on January 1st and ending on December 31st. Newly elected representatives shall be installed."

*Also ask for "housekeeping" changes to the Constitution. To replace the use of "vestry", with the term "teams".

Bylaw Changes to support conservation of resources (B11.06 – job duties of Financial Secretary)

*B11.06(c.) "Issue a year-to-date summary of the funds received to each member (family) for mid-year and year-end at a minimum. Members may request quarterly statements if needed."

These changes are necessary to provide us with some structure as we navigate through a period of unknown. The new structure will be unfamiliar to us, but we can have comfort in knowing "the rules" so to speak. This at least is comforting to me; your ever loyal, rule follower!

In Christ's Service,

Kris Yackel-Friend

Health Highlights by Kris Friend

TIPS FOR UNDERSTANDING YOUR MEDICAL BILLS AND KEEPING COSTS DOWN

It is never fun to be sick, but getting a surprise in the mail (unexpected bill) makes it even worse. Knowing exactly what your plan covers can be confusing, but is essential in lowering the stress associated with medical bills.

- *In-network means that your provider has negotiated a contracted rate with your health insurance. Make sure you have tests and procedures in-Network whenever possible.
- *Deductible is the amount you are responsible for paying for medical expenses before you're insurance begins to pay each year.
- *Co-insurance is your share of the costs of services typically figured as percentage of the amount your insurance allows to be charged for a service, and begins after you've met your deductible.
- *Co-pay is a fixed amount you pay for health care services and can vary by type of service. Copays are different for prescriptions, office visits, and procedures, therefore check your policy.
- *Supplemental Insurance is sold by private companies and can help pay some of the health care costs that your plan doesn't cover, like copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles. If you have Medicare, supplemental insurance will NOT cover a procedure if Medicare does not. Know what your plan covers.

Here are some tips to try to prevent incurring large medical bills.

- *Wellness exams are often covered by insurance plans. These visits are designed to prevent more serious events and therefore costs.
- *Perform self-exams. Both men and women should be familiar with their bodies. This way you can recognize if something has changed and seek care before something becomes a major issue.
- *Save the ER for emergencies. Have a cold? Use over the counter medicine, rest and have some chicken soup. Use your family physician or walk in clinic if after hours, for minor illnesses and sprains.
- *Take care of your body. Eat right, exercise, quit smoking.
- *Practice safety and hygiene. Wear seatbelt, helmets, goggles, and other protective gear when playing sports, exercising, or working in the yard. Wash your hands regularly to prevent spread of germs.
- *Pay cash for generic drugs. Don't use your insurance plan and save money. Many chain drug stores have generics you can buy for great savings ($4 for month supply). Ask for a list.
- *Price shop for tests, procedures, and prescriptions. Costs can vary greatly within a region.

What do you do when you get billed for services rendered?

- *Never pay a doctor or hospital bill until you receive an "explanation-of-benefits" notice from your insurance. It will tell you what the bill was for, what the insurance paid, and what (if anything) you owe. Any questions? Call the customer service number on the back of your card. They can clarify if there are any mistakes, and what needs to happen to remedy them. It is often a coding error. And remember: If a doctor or hospital is in your health plan's network, they have signed a contract that says they can't bill you extra beyond what your insurer allows.
- *If you owe a large amount. If you have a large bill from several tests, procedures, or catastrophic event and have a large balance that YOU owe, contact the billing department of the facility. Set up a payment plan. They will work with you to establish regular payments to help pay off your debt. You have to set this up. Don't assume they know that is your intent; they will send you to collections if you haven't made prior arrangements. Ask for a discount. Some facilities will discount the total amount owed if you pay in cash. Ask what options are available.
