A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR JULIE:

Keep Your Eyes on the Prize

"Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus." ~Philippians 3:13-14

There is a song that I learned at youth events, but it is actually an older song- keep your eyes on the prize, hold on. (Live Sessions @ Rapture Recordings // Aisea Taimani & Minor Islands // "Keep Your Eyes On The Prize" - YouTube is one of my favorite versions)

That song has been running through my brain in the midst of everything going on. There are the ongoing COVID issues, and now trying to figure out when vaccines will be available, the illnesses and deaths, the questions like "when will we be able to meet in person", and on and on. And now as I write, our country is again at odds with each other. In conversation with members we are trying to have it make sense, wondering if we are on the right or wrong side, can we make a difference, and just wondering why? Then there are all the things we deal with in life on a normal basis: waiting for word from the doctor, grief, struggle with family relationships, angry words, etc. Those who know me are aware that I can get myself pretty worked up about all this stuff. I can say, on January 6, it was a very hard day as the church celebrated the manifestation of Jesus while unrest was occurring in our nation's capital.

We cannot let fear and uncertainty rule our lives. I trust that God is present, just as God said they would be. I believe God is grieving with us, but is not absent. I am not ignoring what is going on, but I can't let it rule my life. My focus, my eyes must be set on Jesus. Prayer is becoming more and more important in my life these days, as well as reading scripture. Our Bible studies have been God moments for me as we together read and discuss God's Word.

When I keep my eyes on Jesus, my eyes on the prize, I hold on. I remember that this, no matter what it is, this is not the end of the story, not the end of my story, not the end of America's story, and not the end of the world's story.

I am not advocating just waiting and doing nothing. I advocate for prayer, for peaceful demonstrations no matter what the cause is, for listening with the goal to understand those from differing opinions. Sometimes we can't affect change far from us, but what change can we affect in our own corner of the world? If we all did that in our own corners, all would be covered. I know I want to be part of the solution, not the problem. I pray with our focus on Jesus, we will hold on, and manifest Jesus in a world that is in need.

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of our Lenten season, culminating in Easter. During this service, we traditionally have our foreheads marked with dust, or ashes, acknowledging that we die and return to the earth. At the same time, the ashes trace the life-giving cross marked on our foreheads in baptism. This Lenten journey marks a return to God, a journey to return to God, while we have already been reconciled to God through Christ. Returning to our baptismal call, our journey of faith, we more intentionally bear the fruits of mercy and justice in the world.

FEBRUARY Spotlight! - The Trustees

Each month we plan to spotlight a ministry in the church to educate the membership and to hopefully inspire members and youth to find an interest they can participate in.

The trustees are the caretakers of the church and all church property. They are part of our Finance and Resources team and our Minister is Mike Clifford.

Annually the trustees:

- ♥ Maintain lighting
- ♥ Conduct the annual spring cleanup
- ♥ Repair plumbing
- ♥ Maintain door and window seals and locks
- ♥ Strip and wax tiled floors
- ♥ Schedule carpet cleaning
- ♥ Maintain the grass, shrubbery, trees,
- ♥ Maintain 9 furnaces including filter changes
- ♥ Program numerous building thermostats
- ♥ Change smoke alarm batteries
- ♥ Maintain lawn mowers and other outdoor equipment
- ♥ Schedule inspections of fire extinguishers and the Thomas Township Fire Department
- ♥ Perform minor building repairs
- ♥ Arrange for major projects include getting bids
- ♥ Set up fellowship hall for funeral dinners, classes and special events
- ♥ Set the portable sign
- ♥ Prepare and submit Consumers Energy's ENERGY STAR certification for approval

Special projects in 2020:

- ♥ Set up & tore down the "Back to School Fair"
- ♥ Monitored the impact/savings of LED lighting
- ♥ Planted and harvested the garden watermelons
- ♥ Monitored water damage insurance claim
- ♥ Scheduled and oversaw the roof replacement
- ♥ Obtained estimates and supervised replacement of damaged asphalt
- ♥ Window repairs
- ♥ ENERGY STAR certification was approved for 2020

If you have any skills in construction, plumbing, electrical, home repair, can climb a ladder, use a drill or screwdriver, can organize people/projects, or simply need something to do, the trustees are always looking for help. Much of the work can be done after work, evenings or weekends, some items are scheduled, some are sporadic and you don't need to be at everything. If you are interested in volunteering, contact the church office or any of the following trustees; Ron Friés, Tom Bailey, Marv Lentner, Jim Stuart, Tim Wilson, Dan Roth; they will be more than willing to find out your skillset as well as let you know where you can be of help.

Helping Children Cope with Covid-19

By: Sharon Boyd

COVID-19 Communication

Children and peers react in part on what they see from the adults around them. When parents and caregivers deal with Covid-19 calmly they can provide the best support for their children. Here are some ways to help support your child.

- ◆ Talk with your child about Covid-19
- ◆ Answer questions and share facts about Covid-19 in a way that your child can understand
- ◆ Reassure your child that they are safe. Let them know its okay to feel upset. Share with them how you deal with your own stress, so that they can learn from you how to cope with stress
- ◆ Limit your family's exposure to news coverage of the event, including social media.
- ◆ Try to keep up with regular routines. If schools are closed, create a schedule for learning activities and for fun, relaxing activities.
- ◆ Be a role model. Take breaks, get plenty of sleep, exercise, and eat well.
- ◆ Spend time with your child in meaningful activities, like reading together or playing a game.

"God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble" -Psalm 46:1

SYNOD ASSEMBLY 2021

As 2020 comes to a close, the North/West Lower Michigan Synod is looking ahead to our 2021 events. Given the ongoing concerns about the COVID-19 pandemic, many events will continue to be held differently than in past years. This includes our biggest event, Synod Assembly. For the 2021 Synod Assembly, Synod Council has approved a virtual assembly, which will be held May 14-15, 2021.

While next year's assembly will be different than past years' assemblies, we are looking forward to using this opportunity to engage members in new and exciting ways. The Synod Staff is already at work planning and more information will be available in the coming months.

Due to the nature of a virtual assembly, we are expecting to need volunteers to help with technology. If you have experience in filming, video and/or audio editing, production, technology support or any related fields and are interested in volunteering, please complete the interest form linked here: <https://bit.ly/2WdQOWI>

If you have additional questions, please contact communications@mittensynod.org

Subscribe and Connect

Ascension Lutheran Church is doing everything it can to try and connect with members while we are unable to gather in person. Please consider exploring the following resources:

Our Website—Please check this out to participate in recorded worship services, obtain bulletins, our newsletter, Pastor's Blog, Forms, Online Giving, the Staff—there is a lot here, if you haven't visited it lately, stop by! (ascensionlc.org)

Facebook—We post current information (announcements, articles, music, prayers needed, worship services, etc) that may come up during the week between worship services and the monthly Messenger. If you are not part of the group, request to join.

Ascension Lutheran Church of Saginaw (ELCA) Group

www.facebook.com/groups/220876594969678

YouTube—Our worship services are also posted to YouTube. We gain additional benefits and resources as we gain more subscribers. Click Subscribe today! We have 56 subscribers, let's see if we can get to 100 by March 1st.

The Messenger—Our monthly newsletter. Would you like to get the "color version" of The Messenger via email? Did you know that you can receive a paper version in addition to the email? Feel free to send Lisa a message at ascensionlc@sbcglobal.net, she can add you to the email list AND you will continue on the paper list. Why would we continue sending the paper version? We mail our newsletter via bulk mail which is a significant savings versus 1st class mail.

Phone, Mail, Email, Text—We can do this anytime, not just during a pandemic, pick up the phone and call someone just to say hi, put a note or card in the mail, or even send an email or text. If you need a member's address or phone #, call the church office.

QR Codes

Do you know what a QR Code is? You've probably seen one similar to the ones below. A QR code is a "shortcut" of sorts that can take you directly to a website. If you have a smartphone, you can scan the QR code (which is basically a bar code, like on your groceries) and you will be directed to a site without having to type in (or remember) the website address.

We are worshiping and communicating virtually right now, so I created a couple of QR codes in case you'd like a "shortcut" to the various websites we are using.
