A Message From Pastor Julie

Prayer: Prioritizing God

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples."—Luke 11:1

Prayer—easier said than done! Talking to God, spending time with God—not hard in concept, but difficult in practice. There is no instant gratification or reward from praying; you don't get a "read" message like you might with texts. We talk about prayer, but is it really that important? We pray and are asked to pray when there is a crisis, a struggle, when we don't know what else to do.

In the "7 Basics of Belonging-The Meaning of Church Membership," Sam Rainer reminds us that prayer is a spiritual discipline. Prayer is what we do with and for each other as a church. Prayer is an expectation of belonging and it is critical to your spiritual health. Prayer is our demonstration of faith in God's Word and trusting in God's will. We cannot prioritize God's will without praying!

In Luke 11, the disciples ask Jesus to teach them to pray. Notice the beginning—our Father. It starts with God, not with us, not with me. Prayer is about God, prayer is all about God.

We don't pray for praying sake. A cell phone doesn't exist for itself—it is used to communicate with others. Prayer is the way we communicate with God, it is the way we relate to and with God. In prayer we connect two major concepts: God is infinite (awesome, beyond us) and God is near us (here and now). Prayer is the way finite people communicate with an infinite God. Prioritizing prayer makes God's will your priority.

We make time for what is important to us. Though we will want to dedicate time for prayer, there isn't only one way to pray. You can talk with God as you walk through your neighborhood, maybe including your neighbors in your prayer. You can pray when you are stuck in traffic, taking a shower, driving to and from work. We pray as individuals and as a church body—in worship, meetings, study and any time we gather. Like any other discipline—exercise, study, or other priority, we must make time to practice the spiritual discipline of prayer.

For the last few months we have been posting prayers online (Facebook) that include prayers from the ELCA, as well as individuals celebrating birthdays, baptisms, and anniversaries. If you haven't already, consider including these in your prayers. Pray regularly for the congregation staff and leadership. And don't forget to listen in your prayers—see how God might be answering!

Stranger God: Meeting Jesus in Disguise

"I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."
--John 12:34-35

Love, this is how the world is to know who we are as Christians. It's great to say they will know we are Christians by our love (by our love) but another thing to actually love people who we find offensive or wrong, or just plain different.

Richard Beck, the author explores how we engage in welcoming, embracing, showing hospitality and love in a world that is constantly dividing itself by various labels and objections. Beck calls us to welcome Jesus, who comes to us in the guise of the other; remembered and forgotten, known and unknown, friend and stranger.

We will be reading and studying this book over the summer on Sunday mornings in person at 9:15 a.m. and Monday evenings via zoom at 7:00 p.m.

You can purchase the book through Augsburg Fortress Publishing or smile.amazon.com. It is also available via Kindle. I have ordered a few books that will be first come first serve at $11.50.

100+ Women Who Care: Courtney Elisabeth (York) Favazza Memorial

In memory of Courtney, her mother, Kathy York, is beginning a Memorial to provide donations to Saginaw, Hemlock, St. Charles, Merrill and Freeland charities or non-profits.

Any woman is welcome to join other women in making a difference in our community. Each member will commit to $100/meeting. The group will meet quarterly to determine what charity/program/non-profit will receive the donations that quarter. Ascension is providing a location for the meetings. Ascension will not be handling any of the donations. The charity/program/non-profit that receives a donation must agree not to use the names of members for future solicitations or give information to the public. (Ascension's Weekend Food Bag Program is an example of a program that could be considered).

The first organizational meeting and introduction to Courtney will be July 14th at 5:30 p.m. in Ascension's Fellowship Hall. Attendees will have the opportunity to hear from Courtney's daughter Amaya and learn more about the impact this group will make within our community. This first meeting will simply be an introduction and will not have a collection for a charity. Additional information can be found at www.100womencourtelis.com

Ascension has a congregational goal of participating with at least six other organizations in our community. We welcome the 100+ Women Who Care with open hearts and hospitality.

Financial Audit Report Received

A huge shout out to Tracy Aldrich, Mike Clifford and Ron Fries who completed a thorough audit of our financial records and operations. They presented the report at our June council meeting. Their report came with some recommendations which included additional work needed in some of our reporting and in the SCRIP account policies and practices.

Annual Audit

Please take some time to thank them. They spent hours looking over reports, talking with people involved in our financial process, and completing their report. Thank you also to the counters, financial officers, team leaders, and all others who follow the financial policies and procedures.

Sharing of the Peace

Throughout this time of COVID, we have continued to share the peace in ways which we were more comfortable. At the end of June, we began offering the sharing of peace as you are comfortable, and so if you wish to move about, shake hands, or however you would prefer to share the peace, please do so. Also be aware that some are still uncomfortable so be respectful of others boundaries.

Reminder: The sharing of peace in worship is not just the time to say hello. This sharing of peace is a dramatic illustration of "as we forgive those who trespass (sin) against us." It is a sign of the intentional reconciliation of relationship prior to gathering at the table for the meal or Holy Communion.

Many sincere thanks for thoughts and prayers when Ron passed away in January. Due to Covid-19 restrictions then, the family will be hosting a Celebration of Life picnic on Saturday, July 16th at 1:00 p.m. at Ascension Lutheran Church's outdoor pavilion. Bring a dish to pass and stories/memories of Ron's life experiences to share. Church members who remember Ron are invited.

SANDY SCENES

Make a scene with this fun summer craft you can create outdoors.

What you need:

- Play sand
- Spoons
- Empty jars
- Powdered tempera paint
- Cardstock paper and pencil
- Craft glue
- Paintbrush

What you do:

1. Pour a few tablespoons of sand into empty jars. (You need one jar for every color of paint you make.)
2. Add a small amount of powdered paint to the sand and then mix. Experiment with the amount, using more paint to create deeper colors.
3. Lightly sketch a design on cardstock.
4. Working in one small section at a time, paint an even layer of craft glue on the paper.
5. Use a spoon to sprinkle colored sand atop the glue. Tilt the paper so extra sand falls off. Repeat to complete the entire design.
6. Let dry on a flat surface before displaying upright.
